

Harmony of the Gorge chorus sings four-part a cappella harmony from many genres. It's GLEE for adults.

The chorus is part of a 25,000-member, world-wide organization, Sweet Adeline International. Through education, performance opportunities and a sense of sisterhood, the chorus lives up to its motto: Real Women, Real Harmony, Real Fun!

Under the direction of White Salmon resident, Judy Beckman, the chorus will sing a mixed repertoire of show tunes, old favorites, gospel, and patriotic.

The chorus (formerly known as Hood River Valley) has been singing at community events for 28 years. They will produce their own show October 29th at the Center for the Performing Arts in Hood River. The show, "A Wonderful, Wonderful Gazenga", is a tribute to aging with grace and humor.

Singing for the enthusiastic audience at Huckleberry Festival is one of the favorite performance venues of the year for Harmony of the Gorge chorus. They will perform on the gazebo stage just after the noon opening ceremonies on Saturday.

Judy Beckman, Director

Harmony of the Gorge Chorus

225 Bates Road

White Salmon, WA 98672

509-493-2006