

Joanie's Jazz features Joanie Lamoreaux on vocals, flute, and percussion backed by an accomplished rhythm section of piano, bass, and drums. The group plays their renditions of vocal and instrumental standards of the past in a cool, bluesy style. Pop hits of the thirties through the sixties plus jazz tunes from the fifties and sixties are lovingly performed in a variety of tempos by these skilled musicians.

Each experienced member of the band contributes lively, improvised solo work as well and solid and colorful rhythmic backing.

Joanie's Jazz has entertained audiences at festivals, wineries, night spots, and private parties throughout the gorge. If you like swing, jazz, blues, and sentimental ballads from the past, don't miss Joanie's Jazz.
