

Polly Norris grew up in New York state but has hailed from the Pacific Northwest for more than 20 years. She has played her music from the Oregon coast to The Dalles and is well received by all. Polly is a powerful vocalist who brings a unique blend of covers and originals to the stage. She delivers her songs of reggae, rock, ballads and blues with grace and a rich vocal style that won't soon be forgotten.