

Coming to you from Husum, Spring Creek calls out to you from the high and lonesome wails of bluegrass: Kent Olson on banjo, Joy Olson on stand up bass, Tanya Olson on fiddle, and Guy Chilton on guitar and lead vocals. As the waters of Spring Creek flow into the White Salmon River and then into the Columbia so do these musicians gather from various watersheds of Gorge music to saw and pick and thump.

If its tight harmonies or fiddle tunes you love, you won't want to miss this family band.
