

The Reptile Man has an extraordinary and outstanding array of snakes, lizards, turtles and tortoises that have won the rapt attention of enthralled audiences throughout the Pacific Northwest for 20 years. Presenting approximately 500 educational programs to over 20 thousand people annually, featuring 15-20 reptiles from diverse habitats at each presentation, these dynamic predators capture hearts of both young and old.

The reptile Man founder, Richard Ritchey has assembled a traveling collection of scaled predators that is unrivaled in quality and reputation. Richard is a Herpetologist who brings unique insights, observations and humor to his exciting, riveting, live reptile shows.

Richard works with reptiles in a wide range of sizes. From small snakes and lizards to the majestic 12 foot King Cobra. He is honored with 38 years of handling experience and has presented The Fascinating World of Reptiles to over a half a million people...up close and personal!
